WHY CHOOSE US?

About Linda Findlay

Linda is a bereaved mother, small business owner, mother, grandmother and wife. She has dedicated her life to supporting grieving families and considers her life work her daughters' legacy.

Commitment

Linda Findlay has worked in the funeral industry spanning four decades. The experience that she has can only be developed through the many years of supporting tens of thousands of families through the funeral homes that she serves.

Value

You can not put a price tag on continuing to support grieving families at the times when they need it most-After the funeral!

Customer Satisfaction

Customer service for both the funeral homes Linda works for and the families that she serves is second to none. She shows up when she says she will, she continues to walk with families for as long as they have a need. No call or email is ever left unanswered. The fact is that Linda has worked for the same funeral home firms for many years. She still works for the very first funeral home who joined her in caring for grieving families 32 years ago.

"Families always want to know why nobody cares. I tell them to remember this: People don't say anything not because they don't care, they say nothing because they don't understand. What we provide is a Gift of Understanding. Together, we make a difference in peoples lives. That matters!"
